Here in this place, new light is streaming... These are the first words in our opening song. We gather and welcome the new light that is Fr. Tijo George to our community today! Our communion song is based on Psalm 139, which happens to be the responsorial psalm. Summer officially began this past week. As you sing the words of our closing song, think of summer's bounty and all the good things God has provided for us.

Mass Etiquette and Worthy Reception of Eucharist

- 1. Fast before Mass. It is Church law that one fasts for at least 1 hour before receiving Holy Communion. Water and medicine can be consumed, of course. The purpose is to help us prepare to receive Jesus in the Eucharist.
- 2. Don't chew gum in church. It's distracting, it's disrespectful. It is considered impolite in a formal setting, and it doesn't help us pray better.
- 3. Cross yourself with Holy Water on entering and leaving the church. This is a reminder of our Baptism, which made us members of Christ's Church. Just try to remain mindful of what is happening when you do so and don't do it without saying a prayer.
- 4. Dress modestly and appropriately. Wear your Sunday Best. As Catholics we believe that God comes down to meet us at every Mass. So, why would we not dress up? Any clothing that is revealing is not appropriate.
- 5. Show up at least a few minutes early. Getting to Mass early allows you to pray and prepare yourself better for Mass.
- 6. When we enter and leave Church, genuflect toward the Tabernacle. Christ is present for our sake. By allowing our right knee to hit the floor, we acknowledge He is our Lord and God. If someone is physically unable to genuflect, then a bow is sufficient. During Mass, if you pass in front of the altar or tabernacle, bow reverently.
- 7. Please be quiet while in church. Once you enter the sanctuary – it is not the time or place to visit with those around you. If you must talk do so as quietly and briefly as possible. Remember that your conversation might be disturbing someone who is in prayer, which is much more important.
- 8. There is a moral obligation by each Catholic to examine one's conscience prior to arriving at Mass for the reception of the Body and Blood of Christ. Special attention is drawn to those who are in a state of mortal sin, which does not permit them to receive Communion until after having received the sacrament of Confession. If you are civilly married, please do not receive communion until your marriage is validated in the church. The same applies to people who are living together before marriage.
- 9. Bow before receiving Holy Communion. If it is God, then show your respect with a bow of the head. This is an ancient practice that has continued until this day.
- 10. Do not receive from the chalice if you are sick. This is an act of charity, and it is not necessary to receive in order to receive the entirety of Jesus' body, blood, soul, and divinity.
- 11. Be seated in church in such a manner that it signifies attentive listening and readiness to be instructed. Sitting up straight, quietly and reverently is proper. Remember, that being in Church is not the same as sitting in one's couch or living room lounge chair. One's posture while sitting should be indicative of one's intention to listen to scripture. This posture should reflect attentiveness and alertness.
- 12. Do not leave early. Mass does not end at communion. It is disrespectful to leave early. The Mass ends when the deacon says, "The Mass has ended, go in peace," after which we reply, "Thanks be to God." It is proper for the congregation to remain in their pews until the completion of the recessional hymn. Respectfully waiting for the celebrant and those accompanying him to leave the Nave is expected, and only then do individuals begin to leave the pews. If an emergency or unforeseen or uncontrollable event should arise, every effort should be made to leave the Mass in a discreet manner, so as to not disrupt the Mass.
- 13. Pray after Mass, if you feel called to do so. It is a good custom, though not required, to offer a prayer of thanksgiving after Mass is over.
