Blessing of Throats – February 7-8

Next Saturday evening and Sunday morning, the weekend following the February 3rd Feast Day of St. Blaise, a 4th century bishop and martyr from Armenia, we will have the blessing of throats after the Masses at St. Anthony and Our Lady of the Hills. St. Blaise healed a boy who was choking on a fish bone, and afterward this throat blessing developed in the Church seeking his intercession.

Touching the blessed candles to the throats of those who seek the blessing, the priest prays:

Through the intercession of Saint Blaise,
bishop and martyr,
may God deliver you from every disease
of the throat and from every other illness:
In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

- Fr. Jim

MINUTE MEDITATION

Meek does not mean weak. Meekness requires true strength (Mt 5:5). True power is robed in humility. —from Tweet Inspiration.

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

We are invited to sing joyfully in today's psalm. Luckily, our musical garden is a field of many colors. There was a time when Catholics identified with a narrow musical style. However, since Vatican II, we have incorporated a variety of styles, including folk, spiritual, praise and worship and contemporary into the liturgy. Several of those styles are represented in our song selections today. Embrace the variety, and sing joyfully to the Lord!

The Announcement of Easter and the Moveable Feasts

The dates for the moveable feasts this year are: Ash Wednesday (February 18), Easter Sunday (April 5), The Ascension of the Lord [Thursday] (May 14), Pentecost (May 24), the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (June 7), and the First Sunday of Advent (November 29).

The Office of Catholic Women is gathering names of active coordinators and asking parishes who do not have one to choose a coordinator and submit his or her name. The Office of Catholic Women will then work with the coordinators to find participants. They will have an initiation into the apostolic work for the participants, and they will maintain, via the parish coordinator, the diocese-participant connection to keep this ministry strong. The Office of Catholic Women website will have a Ministry of Prayer page where there will be interactive segments regarding intercessory prayer and a few video clips on intercessory prayer, redemptive suffering, etc. Short, printed reflections on these topics will be provided with the monthly newsletter. Please pray and discern if being a Ministry of Praise coordinator is for you. If you would like to be a coordinator, please contact Michele Bays who will submit your name to the Office of Catholic Women.
