The Most Holy Trinity

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity. In the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, we read: “The Church expresses her trinitarian faith by professing a belief in the oneness of God in whom there are three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The three divine Persons are only one God because each of them equally possesses the fullness of the one and indivisible divine nature. They are really distinct from each other by reason of the relations which place them in correspondence to each other. The Father generates the Son; the Son is generated by the Father; the Holy Spirit proceeds from the Father and the Son.” (48)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

On this last day of May, Mary’s month, we ask Mary who is the Daughter of God the Father, the Mother of God the Son and the Mystical Spouse of God the Holy Spirit to intercede for us so that we may have an ever-deepening, personal and loving relationship with the One God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

LORIE’S MUSIC NOTES

On this Trinity Sunday, we celebrate God in three persons: Father, Son and Spirit. We recognize the insight that all our prayer is Trinitarian - to the Father, through the Son, in the Holy Spirit. In our song selections today, we sing of the mystery of our Triune God.
