Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Good Friday Collection, you stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace. Your support means that our church will conduct parish ministry, provide Catholic education, feed the hungry, build houses for Christians, maintain shrines and operate refugee centers in the Holy Land. Christians, along with all of the clergy and religious who serve in the Holy Land, will deeply appreciate your prayers and financial help. Please be generous!

Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday Second Collection

There will be a second collection at the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday Masses for the Education of Seminarians.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Today Jesus tells us "I am among you as one who serves." In accepting the palm branch today, you publicly confirm your baptismal promise to follow Jesus as "one who serves." Selfless service defines a family as Christian.

Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

How great is the power of Merciful Love, which, we await until Christ has put all his enemies under his feet, completely overcoming sin and destroying death as his last enemy! The kingdom of Christ is tension towards the definitive victory of Merciful Love, towards the eschatological fullness of good and grace, of salvation and life. This fullness has its visible beginning on earth in the cross and the resurrection. The Crucified and Risen Christ is the utter revelation of Merciful Love, He is King of our hearts ~ Pope St. John Paul II, homily during Holy Mass at the Sanctuary of Merciful Love, Nov. 22, 1981

On this Palm Sunday, let us reflect on that Merciful Love that offered himself to us. How can we bring this same mercy to those in our lives that need mercy?
