“When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the king will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.’”

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Jesus Christ is King! Today we rejoice in that fact. All dominion, power and authority belong to him! He is the Shepherd King who seeks out the lost and straying sheep and brings them back to the safe haven of his flock which he guards and protects, and nourishes in the sacraments of his Church. Thank God for such a King and thank God that his love has been poured into our hearts.

From the Preface for today's feast:

“It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God. For you anointed your Only Begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, with the oil of gladness as eternal Priest and King of all creation, so that, by offering himself on the altar of the Cross as a spotless sacrifice to bring us peace, he might accomplish the mysteries of human redemption and, making all created things subject to his rule he might present to the immensity of your majesty an eternal universal kingdom, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace.”

Today the Church celebrates the solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Ezekiel speaks of the Lord being the shepherd in the first reading today, and we will sing of the shepherd in our Communion song. You will hear many of the words from Matthew's gospel in our Offertory song. And of course, we must sing of Christ as King today!
