Father Thomas' Message Corner

When we look at the Passion of Christ, it is difficult to understand how the people who followed Him, ate with Him, listened to Him could then turn their backs on Him and condemn Him to death. And yet they did. Would we, as a Society do that today? Would we recognize Jesus when He comes again? We pray to God that we would, and yet there have been instances in the recent past of the population taking on a mob reaction to an event, much like the people did when they called for the crucifixion of Jesus. Christ knew what His life's journey meant for Him. He knew those who would betray Him. And yet, Jesus was obedient, even unto death, to God. The Passion of Christ should overwhelm us in our compassion, our empathy ... and in the knowledge that He died for us because of our sinfulness; He died for us out of love. His Passion reminds us of God's infinite mercy, of His desire to save our souls, and of His undying love for us.

Thank you to everyone that contributed to the Trash Bag Collection for the WV Flood Relief Efforts. May God richly bless you for the aid you have given to those in need.

Meditation: Does the King of glory find a welcome entry in your home and heart? Jesus went to Jerusalem knowing full well what awaited him - betrayal, rejection, and crucifixion. The people of Jerusalem, however, were ready to hail him as their Messianic King! Little did they know what it would cost this king to usher in his kingdom. Jesus' entry into Jerusalem astride a colt was a direct fulfillment of the Messianic prophecy of Zechariah (9:9):

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion. Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem. Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, and riding on an donkey and upon a colt the foal of a donkey.

Those who believe, hope, and love receive Christ's kingdom of peace and eternal life. The colt was a sign of peace. Jesus enters Jerusalem in meekness and humility, as the Messianic King who offers victory and peace to his people. That victory and peace would be secured in the cross and resurrection which would soon take place at the time of Passover.

Augustine, the great 5th century church father, comments on the significance of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem: "The master of humility is Christ who humbled himself and became obedient even to death, even the death of the cross. Thus he does not lose his divinity when he teaches us humility... What great thing was it to the king of the ages to become the king of humanity? For Christ was not the king of Israel so that he might exact a tax or equip an army with weaponry and visibly vanquish an enemy. He was the king of Israel in that he rules minds, in that he gives counsel for eternity, in that he leads into the kingdom of heaven for those who believe, hope, and love. It is a condescension, not an advancement for one who is the Son of God, equal to the Father, the Word through whom all things were made, to become king of Israel. It is an indication of pity, not an increase in power." (Tractates on John 51.3-4)

Psalm 24 is another prophetic passage which echoes this triumphal procession of the King of glory: Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.
