Lorie's Music Notes

The readings today speak about love – the love Christ has for his people, and the love we have for one another. In John's Gospel, we hear Jesus say "This is my commandment: love one another as I love you." Jesus loved us so much that he gave his life that we might live. We are still celebrating this extraordinary gift of love in this Easter season. Our Offertory song reflects this theme of love.

Bulletin & Mass announcements—The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 5:30 pm and for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 am. Thank you!!

LERMA Volunteers Needed for May

May, 2018 is Our Lady of the Hills' turn to work at the LERMA Food Pantry. We need at least three volunteers every Tuesday in May from 9:00 am to noon. If you can just work an hour or so, that would help. The first hour is our busiest time. We would appreciate any amount of time you can give. If you have questions, please see Joyce Sweeney or Ellen Asbury. Thank you for continuing to support the LERMA Food Pantry.

Using 529 Plans for Catholic Education

The expansion late last year of West Virginia's 529 accounts to include K-12 expenses offers an exciting opportunity for families to access a Catholic education for their children. Beginning in 2018, up to $10,000 in tuition at Catholic elementary and high schools is an allowable expense under both federal and West Virginia law. And it gets better – in West Virginia, taxpayers may deduct from their state taxable income any contribution they make to a 529 account. Before discussing the details of this opportunity and how families can use 529s, it is important to point out that 529 plans are investments and carry risk. Anyone thinking of investing in one should consult a financial advisor who can provide guidance tailored to individual situations.

If you would like to learn more about this opportunity, please contact the Department of Catholic Schools at 304-233-0880 or online at wvcatholicschools.org.
