Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Are you interested in becoming a Catholic? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which non-baptized adults are prepared to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. In addition, RCIA welcomes adults who are already baptized but not Catholic and prepares those adults to be received into full communion of the Catholic Church, and it also helps those adults baptized Catholic, but who have not received First Communion and/or Confirmation, to complete their sacramental initiation. For more information about RCIA and the Catholic faith, please call Father Tijo at 304-280-4990 or email him at tgeorge@dwc.org.

ATTENTION WVU STUDENTS: Want to become better people and to build authentic, life-long friendships?

ATTENTION WVU PARENTS: Want your college kids to stay Catholic and thrive in their faith?

On Friday, August 10 at noon, the Serra Club of Charleston will host the FOCUS (Fellowship of Catholic University Students) team that serves the West Virginia University Catholic community in Morgantown, including the more than 5,000 students who come from Catholic families at the St. John XXIII Pastoral Center. Hear how they are building an authentic Catholic community with WVU students. Lunch will be free of charge, so please register by calling or texting Michael Tupta at 304-541-5177 or email mjtdds@cisinternet.net before Wednesday, August 8.

Safe Environment—The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston is committed to the protection of its children and young people. The Diocese complies with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People by maintaining an Office of Safe Environment. To report an incidence of suspected child sexual abuse, please contact your local law enforcement agency, or you may confidentially contact the West Virginia Bureau for Children and Families/Child Protective Services by calling the Child Abuse Hotline at 800.352.6513. To report suspected cases of sexual abuse by personnel of the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston to the Diocese, please contact one of the Bishop's designees at 888.434.6237 (toll free) or 304.233.0880: Sister Ellen Dunn, ext. 264; Mr. Bryan Minor, ext. 263; Msgr. Frederick Annie, ext. 267, or Msgr. Anthony Cincinnati, ext. 270. For more information on the Diocese's Office of Safe Environment, please go to www.dwc.org, click the "Diocese" tab, then click "Office of Safe Environment" under the "Offices" menu. To learn more about the Catholic Church's efforts in preventing sexual abuse of children in the United States, please visit <http://www.usccb.org>. Under "Issues and Action," click "Child and Youth Protection" from the drop down menu.

Mass Intentions—If you would like to request a Mass intention, you can fill out a Mass intention envelope at the church or you can create an envelope with the following information: who the Mass intention is for and whether the person is living or deceased, the date you are requesting, your name and a telephone number where you can be reached during the day, and the amount you are offering. You may drop your Mass intention envelope in the collection basket or send it to the office. If the date you request is unavailable, your intention will be scheduled for the next open date available unless you request otherwise.

In accordance with the guidelines from the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston, Mass stipends are deposited in a separate checking account. If you are writing a check, please make it payable to St. Anthony Mass Account.

The current suggested level of giving is $20 for a weekend Mass or $10 for a daily Mass. Any offering, however, is most welcome, and, if you do not have funds to offer, you are encouraged to request your Mass intention.

Lorie's Music Notes

Last week, we moved from Mark's Gospel and started hearing readings from Chapter 6 in the Gospel of John. We will be reading John's Gospel for the next several weeks in a sequence known as the Bread of Life Discourse. Every three years, these readings are heard. Be prepared to sing all the eucharistic songs about bread that you know, because we will probably do all of them over the next several weeks! In the first reading from Exodus, the Lord said to Moses, "I will now rain down bread from heaven for you." Our opening song is Rain Down. The communion song is also very appropriate for the readings today.

Bulletin & Mass announcements—The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 5:30 pm and for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 am. Thank you!!

Saint Anthony: Community Re-Entry Backpack Drive

The Community Re-Entry Backpack Drive, sponsored by the West Virginia Council of Churches, seeks to collect adult backpacks and hygiene kits for those ex-offenders re-entering society after leaving prison. These individuals are released to society without basic necessary resources to help rebuild their lives. There is a flyer enclosed in the St. Anthony bulletins with a list of supplies needed on the back side. Please place your donations in the bins marked "Backpack Drive" located in the back of the church. If you have any questions, please call Mary Ellen O'Farrell at 304-444-6587.

CCWV: Back to School Supplies Drive

Catholic Charities West Virginia needs your help collecting school supplies for students in need. Just as crafts people require the proper tools to complete their work, our children need basic school supplies to succeed. Please place backpacks, pencils, crayons, pens, lined paper, notebooks, calculators, rulers, etc. in the container located in the gathering area during the week of August 5 -11. They will be picked up the following week and distributed to schools in our service area.

Why the Catholic Bible has seven books more than the Protestant Bible?

The Bible at the time of Jesus was called the Hebrew Bible. It consisted of only Old Testament books. The original was in Hebrew language. When the majority of the Jews living outside Palestine started speaking Greek, a group of seventy experts were sent to Alexandria to translate the Hebrew Bible into Greek, as requested by the emperor. The Greek translation of the Hebrew Bible was called the Septuagint Bible. But it contained 46 books. The seven additional books were 1) Judith, 2) Baruch, 3) Sirach (Ecclesiastes), 4) Wisdom, 5) Tobit, and 6) Maccabees I and 7) Maccabees II. Besides, there were some additions to Esther (Vulgate Esther 10:4-16:24) and additions to Daniel: (Prayer of Azariah and Song of the Three Holy Children, Bel and the Dragon). Since Jesus and the apostles used the Septuagint Bible, the Pharisees who finalized the official list (canon) of the Hebrew Bible books in AD 90, called the additional books in the Septuagint Bible "apocrypha" meaning not-inspired or Deuterocanonical books. But the recent discovery of fragments of three Deuterocanonical books among the Dead Sea scrolls found at Qumran proves that they were part of the ancient Hebrew Bible. Since the early Church spread mostly among Greek speaking Jews and gentiles, it accepted Septuagint as its Bible. That is why out of the approximately 340 New Testament references to the Old Testament 300 are from the Septuagint. At the Council of Rome in 382 AD, the Church finalized a canon of 46 Old Testament books (including the Deuterocanonical books) and 27 in the New Testament. This decision was ratified and confirmed by the councils at Hippo (393), Carthage (397, 419), II Nicea (787), Florence (1442), and Trent (1546). All Christians believed the 46 books of the Old Testament as inspired books until Martin Luther in the 16th century discarded the Deuterocanonical books as uninspired because they were not found in the Hebrew Bible finalized in the first century AD by the anti-Christian Jews. But they were retained at the end of the protestant bibles (King James Version) until the Edinburgh Committee of the British Foreign Bible Society excised them in 1825. The Catholic Church considers them inspired and integral part of the Bible.
