Why Jesus suffered and died on the cross?

On April 12th, 2004, after the release of Mel Gibson's widely acclaimed film The Passion of the Christ, Time magazine had a leading article, "Why Did Jesus Have to Die?" Here is the basic reason: Man alone cannot atone for his sin against the infinite justice of God. Only a God-man could do that, and Jesus the God-man made that atonement by his suffering and death. Out of perfect love for us, Jesus took upon himself the punishment we deserved. Thus his willingness to suffer in our place balanced the divine "scales of justice." The debt was now paid. His love paid the price. His passion and death atoned for our sins and redeemed us. The apostle John calls Jesus "the atoning sacrifice for our sins" (1 John 2:2; 4:10). Apostle Paul explains that Jesus' death was a redemptive and atoning act because "Jesus died for us on account of our sins" (Romans 4:25). That is why John the Baptist introduced Jesus to his disciples as the Lamb "who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). St. Mark 10: 45 describes it thus: "The Son of Man came ... to give his life as a ransom for many." Christ's making satisfaction for the penalty of our sins through suffering and death on the cross was, in fact, the way God chose to make possible our salvation and to express His love for man.

Lorie's Music Notes

The liturgy returns again to the Gospel of Mark today after several weeks of proclaiming the Bread of Life discourse from John's Gospel. In the second reading from James' letter, he tells us to cherish the word of God and "be doers of the word and not hearers only." The song selections encourage this as well. There are also several references to the labors of workers in the songs today, as Monday is Labor Day. For the fruits of this creation, thanks be to God!

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Are you interested in becoming a Catholic? The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process through which non-baptized adults are prepared to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. In addition, RCIA welcomes adults who are already baptized but not Catholic and prepares those adults to be received into full communion of the Catholic Church, and it also helps those adults baptized Catholic, but who have not received First Communion and/or Confirmation, to complete their sacramental initiation. For more information about RCIA and the Catholic faith, please call Father Tijo at 304-280-4990 or email him at tgeorge@dwc.org.
