October 2: The Memorial of the Holy Guardian Angels

Who are our Guardian Angels?

No evil shall befall you, nor shall affliction come near your tent, for to His Angels God has given command about you, that they guard you in all your ways. Upon their hands they will bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone.

Psalm 91: 10-12 A heavenly spirit is assigned by God to watch over each of us during our lives. The doctrine of angels is part of the Church's tradition. The role of the guardian angel is both to guide us to good thoughts, works and words, and to preserve us from evil. Since the 17th century, the Church has celebrated a feast honoring them in October throughout the Universal Church. Since the last calendar revision, this feast is Oct 2.

He has charged His angels with the ministry of watching and safeguarding every one of His creatures that behold not His face. Kingdoms have their angels assigned to them, and men have their angels, designated the Holy Guardian Angels. Our Lord says in the Gospel, "Beware lest ye scandalize any of these little ones, for their angels in heaven see the face of My Father." The existence of Guardian Angels is, hence a dogma of the Christian faith. This being so, what should our respect be for that sure and holy intelligence that is ever present at our side. How great our solicitude be, lest, by any act of ours, we offend those eyes which are ever bent upon us in all our ways!

Lorie's Music Notes

The readings today speak of those who prophesy for the Lord. The disciples are not happy because those prophesying are “not one of them,” but Jesus tells them that “no one who performs a mighty deed in my name can at the same time speak ill of me.” Our entrance song reflects this concept of inclusion. As we enjoy these lovely Autumn days, let us sing God’s praises with joy and gladness, knowing that “all are welcome in this place.”

Bulletin & Mass Announcements—The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 5:30 pm and for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 am. Thank you!!
