Who are Mormons?

Mormonism is a Protestant sect started by Joseph Smith. Most Mormons are members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS Church), while a minority are members of other independent churches. The center of Mormon cultural influence is in Utah, but the majority of Mormons live outside the United States. They dedicate large amounts of time and resources to serving in their church, and many young Mormons choose to serve a full time proselytizing mission. Mormons have a health code that bans alcoholic beverages, tobacco, coffee, tea, and other addictive substances. They tend to be very family-oriented, and have strong connections across generations and with extended family. Mormons have a strict law of chastity, requiring abstention from sexual relations outside of marriage and strict fidelity within marriage. Mormons believe in the Bible, in the Book of Mormon and a collection of revelations and writings by Joseph Smith known as the Doctrine and Covenants and Pearl of Great Price. They believe that all people are spirit-children of God. Mormons believe that returning to God requires following the example of Jesus Christ, as well as accepting his atonement through specific ordinances such as baptism. They believe that their church is guided by living prophets and apostles. Central to Mormon faith is the belief that God speaks to his children and answers their prayers. The Mormon Church has admitted for the first time that its founder, Joseph Smith, took multiple wives. In an essay published on its website, <https://www.lds.org/topics/plural-marriage-in-kirtland-and-nauvoo?lang=eng>, the church said "careful estimates" put the number at between 30 and 40, including a 14-year-old and others who were already married. The Mormon church banned polygamy in 1890, and now excommunicates anyone who practices it.

During this Respect Life Month, we should demonstrate our devotion to a culture of life by supporting Amendment 1 on this November's ballot. Voting for this amendment will result in our state finally having effective limits on the use of taxpayer funds to pay for abortions for women on Medicaid. A blocked law will come into effect, placing WV among the majority of states allowing such taxpayer funding only in cases of danger to the mother's life, rape, and incest.

Lorie's Music Notes

During the month of November, we remember our departed family members and friends in special ways. We have our new Book of Remembrance, the candles bearing the names of our loved ones, and in what has become a tradition in our parish, we will be singing "Peace Be With Those" throughout the month. Please make sure you pick up a song sheet, which can be found at the entrances of the church. I find great comfort in the words of this song. Peace be with those who have gone to God. May they be at peace. May they be with God.

Bulletin & Mass Announcements—The deadline this week for bulletin announcements is Wednesday at 5:30 pm and for Mass announcements is Friday at 9:00 am. Thank you!!

Proceeds from this collection will support the humanitarian and recovery efforts of Catholic Charities USA and Catholic Relief Services, and will provide pastoral support and rebuilding assistance to impacted dioceses through the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Please remember in prayer those who have lost their lives as a result of the storms and flooding, as well as all those who were injured and lost their homes, cars, employment, access to food and water, and to those who remain without electricity or are stranded. As we hold the victims and first responders in our prayers during these critical days, let us also spend time in prayer and discernment as we prepare for this upcoming collection. Let us come together now to support our brothers and sisters in Christ who are suffering these horrible losses.
