And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Pentecost

“The Holy Spirit will come upon you and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.” – Luke 1:35 “And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance ... Each one heard them speaking in his own language.” – Acts 2:4b,6 “I have yet many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth.” – John 16:12-13a

Fifty days after his Resurrection, on Pentecost Sunday, the Lord Jesus poured out his Holy Spirit upon his disciples who were praying with the Blessed Virgin Mary in the upper room. The fearful apostles were transformed on Pentecost into dynamic witnesses of Christ. The Church was birthed on that day, and her universal mission of proclaiming the Gospel to the world began. Today we ask the Holy Spirit to come down upon us anew to enlighten, guide and transform us into courageous witnesses of his love. May we be able to produce the fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. (Galatians 5:22-23)

—Fr. Jim

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

Each of us has received gifts from the Spirit, and each of us has opportunities to share these gifts with our Church family in diverse ways, whether we are Music Ministers, Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Greeters...the list goes on. As we sing the Pentecost Sequence today and again invite the Holy Spirit into our lives, may we be open to using the gifts we have to touch the lives of those around us. Come, O Holy Spirit, Come!

There will be a Memorial Day Mass on Monday, May 25, 2015 at St. Anthony beginning at 7:30 am.

DARE TO SHARE ENVELOPES

Take a “Dare to Share” envelope and learn how to share the Catholic Faith with family and friends!

Farewell Brunch for Father Jim

There will be a farewell brunch for Father Jim on Sunday, May 31, 2015 immediately following the 10:30 am Mass in the Parish Center. Everyone is invited to attend.
