Catholic Young Adults of West Virginia

Catholic Young Adults of West Virginia is a small group of young adults that meet monthly to enjoy each others company while growing in their faith. We are currently meeting on the second Tuesday of the month from 6:30 pm—8:30 pm at Blessed Sacrament in South Charleston. We have watched videos by Father Barron, eaten food, and hope to expand our group to include service and guest speakers. Our next meeting is June 14th. We will be meeting in Classroom 1 at Blessed Sacrament to catch up with everyone as summer gets underway. All are welcome!

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Jesus sat down for a meal and was caught between the weeping woman and the indignant Pharisee. Why is it tough issues always pop up at meals? No wonder we need antacids. Jesus focused on the positives, offering forgiveness to the woman and understanding to the Pharisee.

Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

“Jesus forgives the woman because he recognizes the faith the sinful woman had. On hearing that Jesus was at Simon’s house, she ran to buy perfume and overcame obstacles to see Jesus, because she had an unshakeable confidence that Jesus was able to forgive sins. Faith is the only condition that Jesus asks of someone to be saved; it is even the common denominator of His miracles. Jesus’ mercy redeems human misery not by merely brushing up against it or barely touching it, but by letting Himself be contaminated by it.” ~ Pontifical Council for the Promotion of the New Evangelization

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

In today's readings, we hear stories of sins being forgiven. They speak of the mercy of God. Our offertory song reflects this message of love and forgiveness. The communion song continues this theme. In it, we ask God to "dispel all the darkness" in our lives and to "pour out your blessing and healing" upon us. The responsorial psalm also speaks of sins and forgiveness. The last verse is particularly uplifting. After admitting to sin and asking for God's mercy, we can "be glad in the Lord and rejoice!"
