Flood Relief

We still have a long journey left in the flood relief efforts. At this time, non-perishable food, cleaning supplies and hygiene items are in great need. Of course, if you have other items (with the exception clothing), please do not hesitate to bring them in as well. We will work with Catholic Charities or other organizations to ensure the donated items are reaching those in need (flood victims or others in need). If you have any questions, please contact Chris Joseph at cjoseph2139@suddenlink.net.

A collection area has been established in the recessed space in the back of the church.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Today, Jesus warns us his Word will create conflict for parents and children. In a permissive society which advocates individualism and consumerism, parents must continue to teach and live the gospel values of respect, service to others, forgiveness, generosity and compassion.

Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

I wish not merely to be called Christian, but also to be Christian ~ St. Ignatius of Antioch

While the world changes, the cross stands firm. ~ St. Bruno

In this day and age, unless Christians are revolutionaries, they are not Christians. They must be revolutionaries through grace! Grace itself, which the Father gives us through the crucified, dead and risen Jesus Christ, makes us revolutionaries...To become saints, only one thing is necessary: to accept the grace that the Father gives us in Jesus Christ. There, the grace changes our heart.~ Pope Francis June 17, 2013

The Entrance Antiphon for Monday's feast is: Glorious things are spoken of you, O Mary, who today were exalted above the choirs of Angels into eternal triumph with Christ. Ave Maria!
