Flood Relief

We still have a long journey left in the flood relief efforts. We will attempt to focus on the items that are most in need through periodic announcements in the bulletin. At this time, non-perishable food, cleaning supplies and hygiene items are in great need. Of course, if you have other items (with the exception clothing), please do not hesitate to bring them in as well. We will work with Catholic Charities or other organizations to ensure the donated items are reaching those in need (flood victims or others in need).

If you have any questions, please contact Chris Joseph at cjoseph2139@suddenlink.net.

Lost and Found

Our "Lost and Found" box is located in the work sacristy (left side of altar) of the church.

A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

The phrase in today's gospel, "I don't know where you come from," is often used by parents about children and children about parents. Change is rapid. One generation has little in common with another. We depend on love, trust and mutual respect to bridge this gap.

Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy

Everyone in the world ought to perform at least one act of mercy per day; at least one, but there can be many more. Such deeds can easily be carried out by anyone, even the very poorest. There are three ways of performing an act of mercy: the merciful word, by forgiving, and by comforting; secondly, if you can offer no word, then pray—that too is mercy; and thirdly, deeds of mercy. When the Last Day comes, we shall be judged on this, and on this basis we shall receive the eternal verdict. ~ St. Faustina

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

“Obedient to Christ and to the Church, we gather in liturgical assembly, week after week. As our predecessors did, we find ourselves ‘singing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in our hearts to God.’ This common, sung expression of faith within liturgical celebration strengthens our faith when it grows weak and draws us into the divinely inspired voice of the Church at prayer. Faith grows when it is well expressed in celebration.” -Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship
