

First Saturday

October 1, 2016 is First Saturday. Devotion begins at 7:30 am.

The Catholic University of America

Today's special second collection is for The Catholic University of America, unique among universities in the U.S. as the national university of the Catholic Church. Nearly one third of all U.S. bishops, archbishops and cardinals in our country are alumni, along with more than 12,400 living priests and religious from around the world.

Your contributions will strengthen the work of our top scholars, many of whom help to explain Catholic social teaching to the rest of the world. It will also support scholarships for students—including those studying to become our future priests and religious. Thank you for your generosity.

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

In today's gospel, we hear the story of the rich man who ignored the beggar named Lazarus. This Lazarus is not to be confused with Lazarus, the brother of Martha and Mary, who Jesus raised from the dead. This beggar suffered in life, but was rewarded in Heaven. Our Communion song is particularly appropriate for this story. The Lord hears the cry of the poor. It is a reminder for us to take care of our brothers and sisters in need.
