The Importance of Sunday (Part 1)

How important is Sunday? According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church (YOUCAT) Sunday is an extremely important day. It is the most important day of the week.

Sunday, the “Lord’s Day,” is the principal day for the celebration of the Eucharist because it is the day of the Resurrection. It is the pre-eminent day of the liturgical assembly, the day of the Christian family, and the day of joy and rest from work. Sunday is “the foundation and kernel of the whole liturgical year” (SC 106). – Catechism of the Catholic Church #1193

Sunday is the center of Christian time, for on Sunday we celebrate Christ’s Resurrection, and every Sunday is a miniature Easter. If Sunday is disregarded or abolished, only workdays are left in the week. Man, who was created for joy, degenerates into a workhorse and a mindless consumer. We must learn on earth how to celebrate properly, or else we will not know what to do in heaven. Heaven is an endless Sunday. – Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church #187

LORIE’S MUSIC NOTES

Over the last four months, we have experienced Lent, Holy Week/Triduum, the Easter season, and solemnities of the Trinity, Corpus Christi and Saints Peter and Paul. This week, we finally go back to Ordinary Time. Because of the connotations of the term "ordinary" in English, many people mistakenly think Ordinary Time refers to the parts of the Church year that are unimportant. Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" because the weeks are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis refers to numbers in a series. Ordinary Time is in fact the ordered life of the Church. On this 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, let us also celebrate the birth of this great country, as we proudly sing the closing song!

Book Signing Next Week!

Mary Endres Thomas - author of the book "Kids These Days" will host a book signing in St Anthony's Parish Hall on Sunday, July 13th from 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. - Two other people who are featured in the book will also be autographing books as well. Light refreshments will be served. This is a great opportunity to meet the author and renew friendships. All proceeds will be donated to St Anthony Catholic church's outreach programs in memory of Bernice Endres.
