SUNDAY, JUNE 1, 2014

The Ascension of the Lord

“Jesus ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.”

From the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

132. What does the Ascension mean?

After forty days during which Jesus showed himself to the apostles with ordinary human features which veiled his glory as the Risen One, Christ ascended into heaven and was seated at the right hand of the Father. He is the Lord who now in his humanity reigns in the everlasting glory of the Son of God and constantly intercedes for us before the Father. He sends us his Holy Spirit and he gives us the hope of one day reaching the place he has prepared for us.

Pentecost

Next Sunday is Pentecost, often called the birthday of the Church. I invite you to wear some red clothing next Sunday. Red is the color of the tongues of fire that appeared over the disciples on Pentecost. And be sure to pray this week that the Holy Spirit will transform all the members of the Church into courageous witnesses of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Fr. Jim

LORIE’S MUSIC NOTES

We celebrate the solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord today. Our Entrance and Offertory songs reflect this theme. Also, in Matthew’s gospel, Jesus tells his apostles to “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations...” These are the words in our closing song, as we, too should go forth and proclaim the good news to those around us.

Peter’s Pence Collection — Be a Witness of Charity

On Easter Sunday 2013, Pope Francis encouraged each person to be a witness of charity. “Let us be renewed by God’s mercy...and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation, and make justice and peace flourish,” he said. Pope Francis has continued to remind us through his actions that we must serve our brothers and sisters in order to be true disciples of Christ.

The Peter’s Pence Collection unites us in solidarity to the Holy Father and his works of charity to those in need. Next week our diocese will take up the Peter’s Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Join our Holy Father as a witness of charity to those who are suffering.
