“Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

Saints Peter and Paul – June 29, 2014

In a sermon he preached in 395, St Augustine said this about St. Peter and St. Paul: “Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two are one; and even though they suffered on different days, they are one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles’ blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith.”

Some facts about St. Peter: Simon, a fisherman from Galilee was introduced to Jesus by his brother Andrew. Jesus gave him a new name Petros (Greek) Cephas (Aramaic), meaning “Rock.” In English it is rendered Peter. And Jesus said to him, “You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld will not prevail against it.” St. Peter spent his last years in Rome, leading the Church. He was martyred in 64 A.D. being crucified upside-down at his request because he was not worthy to die as Jesus died. He is buried on Vatican hill. St. Peter’s Basilica is built over his tomb. (Pope Francis is a successor to St. Peter.)

Some facts about St. Paul: Saul was born in the first decade of the first century A.D. in the city of Tarsus, in the Roman province of Syria-Cilicia. His family was a devout Jewish family and he was a Roman citizen. Paul was his Roman name. He had an excellent education in Greek culture and he studied also in Jerusalem under Rabbi Gamaliel, a great Jewish teacher. As a student of Rabbi Gamaliel, Saul memorized the Scriptures. He identified himself as a Pharisee. Saul persecuted the Church and on the road to Damascus he had a dramatic conversion. He was baptized and become an Apostle, tirelessly preaching the Gospel to the Gentiles of the Mediterranean world. Paul was imprisoned and taken to Rome where he was beheaded in the year 67 A.D. He is buried in Rome in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls.

SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES

MUSIC FOR LITURGY

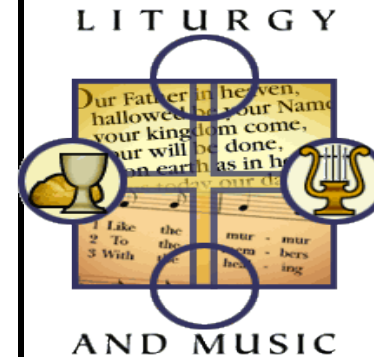

Entrance: By All Your Saints Still Striving - #35 (TM)

Gloria: Mass of Renewal — #870

Offertory: The Cry of the Poor — #625

Communion: Taste and See — #346

Recessional: For All the Saints — #729

LORIE’S MUSIC NOTES

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul takes precedence over the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time this year, as June 29 (their feast day) falls on a Sunday. For the Entrance song, we will sing verse 7 in place of verse 2. Verse 7 was written specifically for Saints Peter and Paul.

MINUTE MEDITATION

Say Yes to God's Will

Praise and thank God that He sees more in us than we see in ourselves.

All God needs to make a masterpiece in you is your consent.
