The Patriarchal Basilica of the Most Holy Savior and St. John the Baptist at the Lateran

The anniversary of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica, which was erected by the Emperor Constantine, has been observed on this day since the twelfth century. This feast was at first observed only in Rome but later in honor of the basilica, which is called the mother church of Christendom, the celebration was extended to the whole Latin Church. This action was taken as a sign of devotion to and of unity with the Chair of Peter which, as Saint Ignatius of Antioch wrote, “presides over the whole assembly of charity.”

Our pastor, Fr. James Kurtz, OFM Cap. can be reached by email at kurtzwv@gmail.com To make an appointment for personal business please contact him at 304-342-2716 x 406

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2014

The Dedication of the Lateran Basilica – November 9, 2014

Today we celebrate the anniversary of the dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. It is commonly known as the Church of St. John Lateran. The full and proper name of this Church is: The Patriarchal Basilica of the Most Holy Savior and St. John the Baptist at the Lateran. The Lateran Basilica, built on land owned by the Laterani family, was dedicated by Pope St. Sylvester I on November 9, 324.

We celebrate this feast because the Basilica of St. John Lateran is the Pope's own Church. It is the cathedral (from the Latin "cathedra" meaning chair) church of the Diocese of Rome. As we know, the Pope is the Bishop of Rome, and in the Lateran Basilica is the "cathedra," the chair, the episcopal seat of Pope Francis. Near the Basilica is the Lateran Palace, which was the Pope's official residence until it was moved to the Vatican in the 16th century. Today we celebrate the anniversary of the Lateran Basilica which is called "mother and head of all churches of Rome and the world" ("omnium ecclesiarum Urbis et Orbis mater et caput").

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

Today, we celebrate the anniversary of the dedication of the earliest basilica of Christianity. Saint John Lateran is the mother church of Rome. The basilica was named in honor of Saint John the Baptist and for the Laterani family who owned the property where the church was built. The readings speak of the church as a foundation built by Christ. We will sing of this in our music selections today.

Youth For Understanding (YFU) is a nonprofit intercultural student exchange organization. One local exchange student, Niklas from Germany, is currently attending George Washington High School. His current host family can only keep him through November 15th. We are searching for a new host family that could host him for the remainder of the year. Niklas is described as an inquisitive and logical person who is humorous, goal oriented and hard working. Can you help with an urgent need for a new host family for Niklas? For more information and to apply contact Sara Loftus at the YFU Central Southern Ohio/West Virginia Field Office at (304)972-6242.
