Knowing their malice, Jesus said, “Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax.” Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, “Whose image is this and whose inscription?” They replied, “Caesar’s.” At that he said to them, “Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.”

World Mission Sunday

Today, on World Mission Sunday, we are reminded that we followers of Christ have been commissioned to make disciples of all nations. Today we pray for all foreign missionaries and we give generously to the second collection to support all the men and women who have left their homelands to preach the hope-filled, saving message of Jesus throughout the world.

World Mission Sunday should not only remind us that foreign missionaries have been called to participate in the New Evangelization, but so have all of us. Pope St. John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI, and now Pope Francis have called us to bring the Gospel message of Jesus to those who have not heard it, and, most especially, to those who have heard it and now reject it. We all know many people who were baptized Catholic and raised Catholic but now no longer practice their faith. We can be God's instruments who bring others back to Him and His Church. In today's bulletin, the A-List for the New Evangelization is republished. Perhaps you can add to your list or restart your prayers for people to be open and receptive to the Gospel message

LORIE'S MUSIC NOTES

"For the sake of Jacob, my servant, of Israel, my chosen one, I have called you by your name, giving you a title, though you knew me not." Our entrance song today reflects this passage from Isaiah where God is calling his people. "All are welcome in this place."

We will sing another Marian song today as we continue through this month celebrating the Holy

"The spiritual power of the Sacraments is boundless. With grace, we can overcome every obstacle." — Pope Francis

Symbolon Session at St. Anthony's

This week we will be starting session 6 of the Symbolon series. We invite you to join us after the 6:30 Mass in the Parish Center. While Symbolon is most effective when studied as a group, you can still register to study Symbolon at home or to review what you have covered in class. To register for Symbolon, type symboloncatholic.org/register in your internet address bar. You will be prompted to enter the Parish Code—fed1a5. Then click the "Submit Query" button. A Registration form will appear that is 3 pages long. On the first page, fill in your name, create a personal password, confirm the password you just created, and enter your email address which will become your user name for Symbolon. On the second page, you must click the buttons to attest that you are a parish member and to accept the End User License Agreement. Choose whether you wish to receive e-newsletters or resources in your e-mail mailbox or not. On the third page, you must answer a final question to prove that you are human and click "Submit." This will take you to the Symbolon Welcome page. After you are finished and log out, the next time you login to Symbolon you will use your personal username and password.
